

Images of the Great Depression

Name _____

Date _____

Examine the table below and use Shaping Canada to assist you in completing the missing areas of information. This table is a timeline and is related to specific topics found in the section of Chapter 11 called "Canada in the Great Depression" (pages 318–330). Describe the topic and then make references to figures from Shaping Canada. Describe the figure and then discuss the significance of the figure in relation to the topic. The first set is completed for you.

Topic Related to Canada in the Great Depression	Description of Figure	Significance of the Figure
Sample: The Roaring Twenties Description: The 1920s were a period of economic stability and growth. Due to industrialization, people moved from the country to cities and consumerism increased.	Sample: Figure 11–3, page 318 A page from the Eaton’s catalogue advertising a woman’s coat for $39.50. The image shows a young woman wearing her new jacket. It is obvious that she is feeling quite happy about her purchase.	Sample: The image demonstrates the nature of the good times associated with the 1920s for many people. Economic stability, employment and credit encouraged people to spend money.
Black Tuesday — October 29, 1929 Description:	Figure 11–4, page 319

BLM 11.1.2 CONTINUED

Topic Related to Canada in the Great Depression	Description of Figure	Significance of the Figure
Effects of the Depression Description:	Figure 11-5, page 320
The Depression and the Prairies Description:	Figure 11-7, page 321
Government Responses Description:	Figure 11-10, page 322

BLM 11.1.2 CONTINUED

Topic Related to Canada in the Great Depression	Description of Figure	Significance of the Figure
Changes in Political Ideology Description:	Figure 11-13, page 325
	Figure 11-19, page 329
	Figure 11-20, page 330

