

Aboriginal Political Activism

Name _____

Date _____

Use pages 418 to 422 in Shaping Canada, and your knowledge from previous chapters to find out more about the events listed below. What were the circumstances or causes before each event, and what happened after as a consequence?

Circumstances Before Event	Event	Consequences of Event
	1969: The Canadian government introduces the White Paper on Indian Policy.
	1973: The Canadian government formally puts an end to the residential school system.
	1973: The Supreme Court of Canada rules on the Calder case.

BLM 14.3.1 CONTINUED

Circumstances Before Event	Event	Consequences of Event
	1974: The Canadian government creates the Office of Native Claims.
	1975: The James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement is signed.
	1975: Justice Thomas Berger begins holding hearings across the North.
Does the Canadian government's relationship with First Nations, Inuit, and Métis show more change or more continuity? Support your answer with evidence.

