

Thinking Historically Within Regional and National Contexts

Name _____

Date _____

Use the following organizer to evaluate the regional and national impact of specific events during the Confederation of Manitoba.

Event	Describe the impact of the events relative to how they were interpreted in various parts of the Red River Settlement.	Describe the impact of the events relative to how they were interpreted in other parts of Canada.
Canadian Expansion Plans, the Red River Valley, Changes at Red River and Outspoken Newcomers (pp. 200–201)
The Transfer of Rupert's Land to Canada and The Survey (p. 202)
The Comité National des Métis, The Comité Takes Charge, and The Provisional Government is Formed (pp. 203–204)

BLM 7.1.1 CONTINUED

Event	Describe the impact of the events relative to how they were interpreted in various parts of the Red River Settlement.	Describe the impact of the events relative to how they were interpreted in other parts of Canada.
The Execution of Thomas Scott (p. 205)
The Manitoba Act (pp. 205–206 and 208–209)
The Canadian Expeditionary Force and the Reign of Terror (pp. 206–207)

