Read the following quotations about change. For each one, decide on an example from this part of Chapter 8 (pages 244–251) that supports or contradicts the truth of the statement. Defend your choice with details about the event and logical reasoning.

“Never doubt that a small, group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has.” Margaret Mead (1901–1978, American cultural anthropologist)
Example:
Strongly supports the statement	Supports the statement somewhat	Contradicts the statement somewhat	Strongly contradicts the statement
1	2	3	4
Rationale:

“Those who are in power positions and positions in which we can make effective change, are not doing as much as they need to be doing.” Sheila Watt-Cloutier (Inuit environmental activist)
Example:
Strongly supports the statement	Supports the statement somewhat	Contradicts the statement somewhat	Strongly contradicts the statement
1	2	3	4
Rationale:

BLM 8.4.2 CONTINUED

"Those who make peaceful revolution impossible, make violent revolution inevitable." John F. Kennedy (1917–1963, 35th President of the United States)

Example:

Strongly supports the statement	Supports the statement somewhat	Contradicts the statement somewhat	Strongly contradicts the statement
1	2	3	4

Rationale:

"There may be times when we are powerless to prevent injustice, but there must never be a time when we fail to protest." Elie Wiesel (political activist, professor, novelist, Holocaust survivor)

Example:

Strongly supports the statement	Supports the statement somewhat	Contradicts the statement somewhat	Strongly contradicts the statement
