

Classification System Checklist

Element	Assessment
	Self	Teacher's
1. The characteristics chosen begin with the most general and logically proceed to the most specific.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. The characteristics chosen are part of the essential nature of the objects being classified.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. Each criterion (plural criteria) in the classification system is specific.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. Several people can use the classification system with the same set of objects and classify them in the same way.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. New objects that are related can be classified using this classification system.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. The classification system can be modified to work with new objects that have not been previously classified but are related to the original set.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

