

BLM 10.1

Exit card Name: _____

Interpret the meaning of the following passage, giving its significance to epistemology (theory of knowledge). You may also use the back of this page.

“Eyes and ears are bad witness.” Heraclitus, sixth century BCE (Pre-Socratic philosopher, Greek Colony of Ephesus in what is now coastal Turkey)

-----
Exit card Name: _____

Interpret the meaning of the following passage, giving its significance to epistemology (theory of knowledge). You may also use the back of this page.

“Eyes and ears are bad witness.” Heraclitus, sixth century BCE (Pre-Socratic philosopher, Greek Colony of Ephesus in what is now coastal Turkey)

-----
Exit card Name: _____

Interpret the meaning of the following passage, giving its significance to epistemology (theory of knowledge). You may also use the back of this page.

“Eyes and ears are bad witness.” Heraclitus, sixth century BCE (Pre-Socratic philosopher, Greek Colony of Ephesus in what is now coastal Turkey)

