

PRESENTATION ASSESSMENT RUBRIC

Evaluation criteria: Examine this rubric to understand how your presentation will be assessed.

Category	Level 1 50-59%	Level 2 60-69%	Level 3 70-79%	Level 4 80-100%
knowledge	Demonstrates weak understanding of the content. Mostly reading notes or screen/monitor.	Demonstrates adequate understanding of the content. Often reading notes or screen/monitor.	Demonstrates good understanding of the content. Seldom reads notes or screen/monitor.	Demonstrates excellent understanding of the content. Almost no reading of notes or screen/monitor.
thinking	Evidence of little research or original thinking about connections or issues. Seldom encourages or responds thoughtfully to audience inquiries.	Evidence of sufficient research or original thinking about connections or issues. Sometimes encourages and responds somewhat thoughtfully to audience inquiries.	Evidence of sound research or original thinking about connections or issues. Often encourages and responds thoughtfully to audience inquiries.	Evidence of outstanding research or original thinking about connections or issues. Always encourages and responds very thoughtfully to audience inquiries.
communication	Comprehensible but lacks clarity and/or correctness in usage of language.	Comprehensible with reasonable clarity and/or correctness in usage of language.	Comprehensible with good clarity and/or correctness in usage of language.	Comprehensible with excellent clarity and/or correctness in usage of language.
application	Weak organization. Ineffective or little use of graphic illustrations, skits, handouts, or interaction with audience. Few examples or applications.	Fair organization. Adequately uses graphic illustrations, skits, handouts, or interaction with audience. Some examples or applications.	Good organization. Effectively uses graphic illustrations, skits, handouts, or interaction with audience. Several examples or applications.	Excellent organization. Masterfully uses graphic illustrations, skits, handouts, or interaction with audience. Many examples or applications.

