

Worksheet "What Do I Remember of the Evacuation"

Joy Kogawa's poem tells this story:

Competing Views in the Poem	Do these views represent nationalist or ultranationalist ideologies?
1. 2. 3.	1. 2. 3.
Elements of Information in the Poem	Elements of Propaganda in the Poem
The poem is a remembrance of things past, propaganda, or both: Reasons for my conclusion: On the basis of this poem, nationalism can lead to ultranationalism to the following extent:	