

Tetrahedral

Tetrahedral shapes are three dimensional. You need to analyze the perspective until you can see that, in this image, lines going upward are in the plane of the page. The lower line on the right is coming out from the page and the upper line on the right is going into the page.