

Intermolecular Forces:
Dipole-Dipole Attractions

The dotted lines represent dipole-dipole attractions among the polar molecules. These attractive forces are electrostatic forces acting between positive and negative regions of the molecules.