

2. What is the current state of research on xenotransplantation of kidneys? Is it being done anywhere in the world? What organs or tissues are currently being researched or transplanted? How are donor animals produced, and what is their fate after transplantation? What are the medical risks to the recipients? What are the ethical issues?

[illegible]