

Chapter 1 Wrap It Up!

This worksheet will help you with the Chapter 1 Wrap It Up! on page 39.

Suppose you are a reporter for the school's newspaper. Search the Internet, magazines, or newspapers for data about a topic related to the music industry.

1. Topics include sales, favourite artists, attendance at tours, or popularity of different types of music. Identify your topic.

---

2. Search the Internet, magazines, or newspapers for data about your topic. Keep track of your sources.

3. Make a table that displays your data.

4. a) Decide on a type of graph to display the data accurately. What claim or argument will you make?

---

- b) Draw the graph on grid paper. Use the checklist to check your graph.

☐

The graph is a good choice for displaying the data.

☐

The graph represents the data accurately.

☐

The graph is informative. It supports the claim or argument.

5. a) Decide on a type of graph to misrepresent the data. What claim or argument will you make?

---

- b) Draw the graph on grid paper.

6. You have been asked to write articles that relate to each of your graphs.

- a) What headline will you choose for the accurate graph? Explain your thinking.

---

---

- b) What headline will you choose for the misleading graph? Explain your thinking.

---

---