

10-1: Exploring Globalization

CHAPTER 16: THE GLOBAL CITIZEN

1. A passport, birth certificate, or court statement are all documents that can be used to identify a person's
  - A. residence
  - B. citizenship
  - C. rights and responsibilities
  - D. social responsibility

2. To determine global citizenship, a check would be made of an individual's
  - A. birth certificate
  - B. global thinking and actions
  - C. legal status
  - D. passport

3. The first country to pass laws against the practice of slavery was
  - A. Great Britain
  - B. Brazil
  - C. The United States
  - D. France

4. The Red Cross, trade unions, and Greenpeace would best be described as
  - A. national organizations
  - B. international organizations
  - C. humanitarian organizations
  - D. non-governmental organizations

5. Corporations such as the Body Shop and Mountain Equipment Co-op operate on the principle of _____, which means they have recognized that it is good business to act as good global citizens.
  - A. trade union membership
  - B. exploitation of labour
  - C. social responsibility
  - D. company shareholder benefits

6. Organizations such as Greenpeace can mount large-scale campaigns quickly because of
- A. widespread cellphone use
  - B. modern communication technologies
  - C. donations from big companies
  - D. international media support

Use the following quotation to answer question 7.

“We have inherited a large house, a great ‘world house’ in which we have to live together — black and white, Easterner and Westerner, Gentile and Jew, Catholic and Protestant, Muslim and Hindu — a family unduly separated in ideas, culture and interest, who, because we can never again live apart, must learn somehow to live with each other in peace.”

— Martin Luther King Jr., civil rights leader, 1967

7. In this statement, Martin Luther King Jr. asserts that people in a global world must be prepared for
- A. accommodation
  - B. homogenization
  - C. acculturation
  - D. assimilation

Use the following sources to answer questions 8 and 9.

Oxfam describes a global citizen as someone who

- is aware of the wider world
- respects and values diversity
- is willing to help others
- accepts responsibility for his or her own actions

Source II

Humanity “will be free in the sense that they will not struggle for survival on a ‘you’ or ‘me’ basis, and will therefore be able to trust one another and be free to co-operate in spontaneous and logical ways.”

— Buckminster Fuller in Operating Manual for Spaceship Earth, 1969

Source III

Citizenship is “a way of meeting one of our deepest needs, the need to belong...the need to be part of something larger than ourselves.”

— Mark Kingwell, Canadian philosopher

8. The sources that focus on greater global understanding and cooperation are

- A. Sources I and II
- B. Sources I and III
- C. Sources II and III
- D. Sources I, II and III

9. The source or sources that apply most directly to national and global citizenship is/are

- A. Source I
- B. Source II
- C. Source III
- D. Sources I and III

Use the following cartoon to answer question 10.

10. The cartoon suggests that the world has passed its level of

- A. accommodation
- B. accountability
- C. sustainability
- D. ingenuity

Use the following quotation to answer question 11.

“While conflict is a human universal, so is conflict resolution. Customs that were common throughout history and prehistory — slavery, punishment by mutilation, execution by torture...the legal ownership of women — have all vanished from large parts of the world ... For all its selfishness, the human mind is equipped with a moral sense, whose circle of application has expanded steadily and might continue to expand as the world becomes interdependent.”

— Steven Pinker, psychology professor at Harvard University

11. In this quotation, Steven Pinker shows a belief

- A. in customs staying in place
- B. that globalization spreads conflict
- C. that globalization has spread moral beliefs
- D. that globalization may help resolve human conflict

Use the following quotation to answer question 12.

“You only have one life, so live it as something worthy rather than as a cog in a stifling, commercial system, don’t let yourself be globalized to death.”

— Rick Salutin, playwright, author and columnist

12. In this quotation, Rick Salutin defends

- A. economic development
- B. interdependence
- C. individuality
- D. civil society

Match the best term with each statement in questions 13 to 15.

- A. citizenship
- B. democracy
- C. civil society
- D. global citizen

13. Recognizes that a need in one part of the world requires both an individual and collective response from people in the rest of the world.

14. Contains elements of public-spiritedness, social trust, non-violence, and tolerance.

15. Represents a legal status that is officially designated by specific documents.